

Social Impact & Environmental Campaigns

Telling Stories That Drive Change

At Redwood Films Kenya, we are passionate about creating powerful content that inspires awareness, advocacy, and action. Our Social Impact & Environmental Campaigns division is dedicated to documenting and amplifying stories around sustainability, social justice, community empowerment, and climate action.

What We Offer

Impact Documentaries

We produce insightful short films and features that capture the real stories behind social and environmental initiatives—giving a voice to communities, changemakers, and unheard heroes.

NGO & CSR Campaigns

Partnering with NGOs, donors, and corporates, we create compelling visual content that showcases the success, challenges, and human stories behind programs and interventions.

Advocacy & Awareness Media

From video series to social media clips, we help you build campaigns that educate the public and influence policy, using emotionally resonant and fact-driven storytelling.

Photo Essays & Digital Stories

We develop visual reports, online galleries, and interactive storytelling experiences that make impact measurable and memorable.

Focus Areas

- Climate Change & Environmental Protection
- Women & Youth Empowerment
- Education & Health Access
- Water & Sanitation (WASH)
- Food Security & Agriculture
- Human Rights & Governance

Why Work With Us

- Human-Centered Approach: We put people and communities at the heart of every story.
- Field-Ready Crew: Experienced teams who can shoot in remote, rural, or high-security areas.
- Global Standards: We align with donor and development communication frameworks.
- Bilingual Storytelling: Local languages, subtitles, and cultural nuance included.

Featured Work

"Voices from the Ground" – A mini-documentary series on climate resilience in East Africa.

"She Leads" – A campaign celebrating women-led development initiatives.

"Clean Water, Bright Futures" – A WASH-focused storytelling project.

Let's Create Impact Together

Whether you're launching a national campaign or documenting a community project, Redwood Films Kenya is ready to help you tell stories that matter.

👉 Contact us today to collaborate on your next social impact production.

